Where may I find information about terms and concepts I do not understand or am not familiar with?

When you stumble across a term or concept on this site that you are unfamiliar with, try accessing one of the following resources we provide:

1. If you are reading from our database of transcripts, you will notice that certain words are highlighted. This means that they are part of our online 'Glossary'. By clicking on the highlighted term, it will lead you to definition found in our online glossary.
2. For your convenience we have also provided a tab that leads specifically to definitions for terms used in the Urantia Book. Click on 'UB Definitions' and scroll down the alphabetical list.
3. We have also provided you with a list of other online links that contain related information. Click on 'Resources' and follow one of the online links provided that may be of assistance to you.
